

Benefits to your Organization

- Healthy alumni mean a healthier, happier and a more productive workplace and association.

- It gives alumni mental and emotional stability, thereby increasing alumnis' engagement.

- It reduces the call for begging to take care of members medical needs hereby, leading to enhanced self esteem and dignity for members.

- It reduces huge cost of medical bills.

- It increases the level of commitment and participation of the alumni to their organization and the association.

- It creates opportunity for your organization to focus on core business activities by virtue of the fact that all matters relating to the health of the members have been adequately taken- care of and promptly.

- Budgetary medical expenditure allows your alumni to determine the exact amount spent annually on health-care of self and others.

- It gives greater value for money spent

